Poem

One Sky

We're counting the same stars.

We're kissed by the same moon.

No matter the distance, the divided.

We will wake up tomorrow.

To the same sun, because

We are, many dreams but one sky.

Petrarcha

Rain and soil.

Meet again to mate.

And the earthy smell.

Of spring dusk.

So divine, so heaven.

And I think of us.

Fresh and alive.
