Media Report: Thanksgiving Day Celebration

Date: 20th December 2025

As part of its ongoing commitment to value-based education, St. Montfort School, Bhopal celebrated Thanksgiving Day on 20th December 2025 with warmth, joy, and heartfelt reflection.

The day began with a special morning assembly, setting a tone of gratitude and unity. The highlight of the event was a beautifully staged musical drama by the students. The performance expressed thankfulness towards parents, children, teachers, friends, nature, and society, showing how each plays a vital role in our lives.

The artistic presentation, rich with music and emotion, encouraged everyone to pause and reflect on the many blessings we often overlook.

The program concluded with a meaningful address by Principal Rev. Bro. Monachan K. K., who spoke on the importance of cultivating gratitude in our everyday lives. He emphasized how thankfulness leads to inner peace, stronger relationships, and a more compassionate society.

To celebrate the spirit of togetherness, a fellowship meal was organized for all, fostering a sense of community and shared joy.

Thanksgiving Day at St. Montfort School was not just a celebration—it was a reminder that gratitude is the foundation of a fulfilled life.
